

Prof. Dr. Duško Vejnović, full professor at the University of Banja Luka, Republika Srpska, Bosnia and Herzegovina

The texts are VIEWS/REVIEWS/DIALOGUE published on the website www.defendologija-banjaluka.com and www.nvoblforum.com

OTHER WORKS, 11.3.2026

1. Transition from a Classical Organization to a Knowledge Organization
2. Knowledge and Intellectual Capital in the Function of Development
3. Knowledge Management — The Challenge of the Future
4. Knowledge Becomes a Basic Life Necessity
5. Populism and Autocracy Suppress Political Culture in BiH
6. St. Sava's Serbian Unity — The Spirituality of Orthodoxy as the Foundation of National Identity
7. Patriots Association of Republika Srpska — A Guarantee of a Stable and Secure Future
8. Competition of Imperial International Projects
9. Authoritarian Populism as an Alternative to Democratic Capitalism
10. The International Dimension of Authoritarian Populism
11. Democracy Must Show It Can Address the Problems That Trouble People as Effectively, If Not More Effectively, Than Authoritarian Alternatives
12. Authoritarian Multi-Imperial Power and Authoritarian Populism
13. The Role of Parents in the Sports Development of Children
14. The Influence of Parents on Children's Sports Choices and Development
15. Promoting Social Engagement and Civic Participation in Public Life
16. Nationalism and Ethnic Reconciliation in BiH
17. History Reminds and Warns Us — A Crime Is a Crime to Silence
18. Knowledge Management Is Driven by Information Technologies
19. Intellectual Capital in the Function of Development
20. Business Intelligence in the Function of Higher Quality Information
21. Patriots and Traitors — Dangerous Communications in BiH
22. The Functioning of Democracy in Deeply Divided Societies — A Major Problem for BiH (V): Power-Sharing Strategy
23. The Functioning of Democracy in Deeply Divided Societies — A Major Problem for BiH (IV): The Centripetal Approach
24. The Functioning of Democracy in Deeply Divided Societies — A Major Problem for BiH (III): The Consociational Approach
25. Social Capital and Human Resources
26. National Security Strategy and Challenges
27. Corruption Promotes Authoritarian Political Power — December 9, International Anti-Corruption Day
28. Duško Vejnović: 50 Years of the University of Banja Luka
29. The Functioning of Democracy in Deeply Divided Societies — Major Problems for BiH (II): Enormous Social Cleavages as a Barrier to Democracy
30. The Functioning of Democracy in Deeply Divided Societies — Major Problems for

BiH (I)

31. Political (Un)Culture in Bosnia and Herzegovina

32. From Knowledge to Security: The Faculty of Security Sciences at the University of Banja Luka as the Foundation of Defendological Protection, Defense, and Security of the Republic of Srpska

33. The Fear of Masses and Elites in Bosnia and Herzegovina

34. Demographic Challenges in the Context of Globalization: The Case of Southeast

Europe

35. Security Challenges and Risks in the Bab el-Mandeb Region

36. Sociological Aspects of Sport — A Contemporary Approach

37. Cybernetic Innovations as a Security Challenge

38. A New Danger from the Old Covid — Prevention for Protection and Security

39. China's "Dual Circulation" Policy — The Superiority of the Chinese Economy

40. The Clash of Civilizations

41. Advanced Pharmacological Research as a Challenge to International Security (also in Russian and Norwegian)

42. Contemporary Security Challenges in Air Traffic — A Review of the Increased Number of Accidents and Plane Crashes in Recent Months

43. Citizens' Trust in State Institutions

44. Implications of Delays in Nuclear Waste Disposal at Trgovska Gora

45. Bosnia and Herzegovina: A Country at the Balkan Crossroads

46. Political Responsibility in Bosnia and Herzegovina

47. The Role of the Ministry of Interior in Preserving the Constitutional Order of Republika Srpska

48. The Role of Civil Society in Countering Foreign Malign Influence on the Information Environment (FIMI)

49. University Professors — What They Are and What They Should Be

50. Sport in the Function of Building a Human Rights Culture Among Youth in Bosnia and Herzegovina

51. The Ecological Crisis and Religious Misunderstandings

52. Sport and Human Rights — A Challenge in Bosnia and Herzegovina

53. Political (Un)Culture and Ethnonationalism as a Threat to Human Rights in Dayton

BiH

54. National Identities and Historical Challenges

55. Sociological Aspects of the Rule of Law and the Legal State

56. To Persecute and to Be Persecuted Is Equally Dangerous — Both States Lead to the Same Abyss

57. Social Development and Human Resources — Where Are Serbia and BiH Headed?

58. Participatory Democracy, Ethics, and Responsibility

59. Majoritarianism and Tyranny — A Danger to Bosnia and Herzegovina

60. The Necessity of Dialogue in BiH — Dismantling Authoritarian Populism

61. Climate Change: A Challenge for International Security

62. The Necessity of Establishing Political Culture, Dialogue, and Responsibility in Dayton BiH Is Not Only a Technical but an Ethical Question

63. Why Are They Suppressing the Cyrillic Script?

64. Security Risks in the North Sea

65. The Application of Digital Forensics in Detecting Cybercrime

66. Multi-Ethnic and Multi-Religious Conflicts — A Threat to World Peace
67. From Knowledge to Security: The Faculty of Security Sciences at the University of Banja Luka as the Foundation of Defendological Protection, Defense, and Security of the Republic of Srpska
68. The Collapse and Failure of the Collective Security System
69. The Influence of the Engaged Intellectual on the Quality of Education and Social Change in BiH and Neighboring Countries
70. Dayton BiH — Divisions and National Bunkers
71. Bosnia and Herzegovina at the Crossroads: Between the Past and the Future
72. The Necessity of Greater Support for the University of Banja Luka
73. Twenty-Nine Years of the Dayton Agreement: An Analysis of Effects and Challenges in Bosnia and Herzegovina
74. Supply Chain Security Challenges Caused by International Crises
75. The University of Banja Luka on the Path to Global Recognition
76. Security and Migration: The Case and Challenge for BiH and Serbia
77. Ecologism, Biodiversity, and Mining in Republika Srpska
78. Multinational Corporations as Factors of International Security
79. The Role of Higher Education in Shaping National Consciousness
80. The World's "Multi-Ethnic Security Dilemma" in the Shadow of International Law
81. Why Is Sociology Being Abolished at Many Faculties and Universities?
82. The Necessity of Higher Education Reform in Bosnia and Herzegovina
83. The Need for Higher Education Reform and the Rejection of Old Rote Learning
- Methods: Focus on Experimentation and Innovation to Increase the Number of Patents
84. The Necessity of Higher Education Reform in Republika Srpska: The Path to Creating Globally Competitive Scientific Personnel
85. The Role of Higher Education Reform in BiH in Improving Youth Competence for Work and Adaptation to New Technologies
86. Where Is Civilization Headed...?
87. Humane Robotics and Ethics
88. Human Genetics and Security
89. The Evolution of Women's Rights in Bosnia and Herzegovina
90. (Un)Democracy and Ethnic Relations in Bosnia and Herzegovina
91. Bosnia and Herzegovina — Europe: Yes or No?
92. The 27th Anniversary of Defendology (1997–2024) — The Science of Protection, Defense, and Security
93. Extremism and Radicalism Threaten Peace and Security in the World — God and Allah on the Lips, a Prayer Book in the Pocket, and Evil in the Soul
94. Globalization and Climate Change — Misunderstandings
95. The Irresponsibility and Politics of Neoliberalism Are Destroying Dayton BiH
96. Masses and Elites — Their (Non)Relationship Has Written History in Blood and Tears
97. Bosnia and Herzegovina in Historical, Cultural, Political, and Religious Challenges
98. Quiz Question: Bosnia and Herzegovina — Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow
99. Unmasking the Relationship Between Masses and Elites — Diagnostics, Prognostics, Therapy, and Rehabilitation
100. Political (Un)Culture in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Spirit of the Provincial Town Are Stifling the Nascent Pluralism of Ideas

101. Cooperation Between Universities, Industry, and the Economy Must Also Become a Reality in Republika Srpska and BiH — This Will Be the True Third Mission of the University of Banja Luka's Development
102. Where Is Dayton BiH Headed — (Un)Constitutional Misunderstandings
103. Dayton Bosnia and Herzegovina on the Road Between Democracy and Autocracy
104. Opportunism and Immoral Conduct in Politics — A Major Threat to BiH
105. Political Corruption in BiH — Disrupted Moral Values
106. Higher Education Is Shackled by the Globalization Concept of Education
107. A University of Thinking or Memorization in Republika Srpska and BiH
108. Security and State Policy
109. National Identity and Security — A Dialectical Unity
110. Ignorance Is the Most Common Political Tool Used by the Powerful
111. Media, Public Relations, and Political Socialization in BiH
112. Essence, Not Form
113. The Interaction Between the University and the Community — Developing the Third Mission of the University
114. Education Must Regain Its Integrity — Universities Must Have Ethics at Their Core
115. The Legal and Social Context of (Ir)Responsibility — Theory and Practice in BiH
116. Science, Education, and the Academic Community Must Become Generators of Development in Transitional Societies
117. Book Review: The Doctrine of Creative Modernity by Nedžad Bašić
118. How to Align Authority and Integrity of Political Elites, Mass Media, Civil Society Organizations (NGOs), and Citizens Against Defamation and Insult
119. Decriminalization and Criminalization of Insult and Defamation — Messages from the Top of the Pen
120. Where Is the Academic Community Headed — Is It Being Destroyed?
121. How to Combat Defamation and Insult — Institutionalized Disciplining of Dissenters in Republika Srpska and Serbia
122. Serious Politics in BiH Is Only That Which Has Ethics Built into Its Foundations — Honesty Is the Best Policy
123. Participation in the VIII International Scientific Conference — High Technologies, Business, Society 2023, Scientific-Technical Union of Mechanical Engineering, Industry 4.0, Bulgaria
124. Participation in the Third International Scientific Conference "Contemporary Security Challenges and Threats" — Session "Police," Faculty of Security Sciences, University of Banja Luka, 06.03.2023
125. Sport, Media, and Various Challenges
126. Real Politics Is Only Possible Where Ethics Forms Its Foundation
127. The Security of the Contemporary World Is Characterized by Uncertain (Volatile) Trends and Short-Lived Visions
128. The Collapse of the Welfare State and the Rise of Inequality and Poverty Are a Major Challenge, Risk, and Threat of Globalization
129. Globalization and Neoliberalism Were (Non-)Institutionally Established by the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank
130. The Social Policy of Certain Societies Has Become Increasingly Vulnerable to the Effects of Globalization
131. Globalization, Founded on the Postulates of Neoliberalism, Leads to the Collapse of the Welfare State, Increases Poverty and Inequality, and Threatens Peace and Security in the World

132. Ethnic and Religious Nationalism and Conflicts — The Central Question of Global Security

133. Violent and Non-Violent Ethnic Conflicts and Security

134. Violent Ethnic Conflicts — A Problem for Global Security in the 21st Century

135. The Transnationalization of Crime, Corruption, and Terrorism — A Major Security Challenge

136. Corruption, Organized Crime, and Terrorism as Security Threats

137. Organized Crime and Terrorism Are Interdependent

138. Organized Crime Threatens Security and Is Most Often the Cause of Terrorism

139. The Diversity of Contemporary Terrorism — A Danger to Civilization

140. The Misuse of Information Technology for Terrorist Purposes

141. Human Security in Traditional Security Theories — Challenges and Perspectives

142. To Conquer or to Be Conquered Is Equally Catastrophic for the Nation-State

143. Crisis and Poverty in Bosnia and Herzegovina — Leaving No Room for Life or Death

144. Security — The Safety of the World Is at Risk

145. Ethics, Business, and Management (2): Leadership — A Complex Process

146. Private Security and Detective Activity — A Sociological Overview

147. Poverty — Reflections on Security

148. Bosnia and Herzegovina Cannot Develop on the Basis of Debt-Creditor Relations and Autocratic, Populist, and Aggressive Political (Un)Culture

149. Domestic Violence — A Problem for Present and Future Societies

150. Security Challenges of Our Civilization

151. The Challenge of the New Age

152. Hate Speech, Discrimination, and the Media — A Major Problem in Bosnia and Herzegovina

153. Bosnia and Herzegovina — State, Paths, and Perspectives: Misunderstandings

Require Dialogue and Solutions

154. Crisis and Poverty in Bosnia and Herzegovina — Leaving No Room for Life or Death (II): Mechanisms for Resolving the Crisis in Bosnia and Herzegovina

155. BiH at the Crossroads Between Conversation and Agreement, and the Need for Democracy and the Rule of Law

156. Society Is the Alibi for All Kinds of Usurpations, Both of Power and Property, in BiH

157. The Family in the Challenges of Transitional Societies

158. The Legal System of Dayton Bosnia and Herzegovina Must Not Be Violated by Political Struggles, Uses, and Abuses

159. The Undermining of a Culture of Dialogue and Tolerance in BiH

160. Tolerance, Dialogue, and Culture Below the Civilizational Level

161. Political Symbols and Political Myths Are a Major Problem in Bosnia and Herzegovina

162. Dialogue Presupposes Equal Participants, Not Subjects

163. The Necessity of Dialogue Among Political Elites in Bosnia and Herzegovina Is Not Only a Technical but an Ethical Question

164. Bosnia and Herzegovina Is Being Destroyed by Individual, Group, and National Egotisms

165. Democracy in Bosnia and Herzegovina as an Ethnic Political Process
166. Where Is Bosnia and Herzegovina Headed? — In the Political Arena, Political (Un)Culture Blocks Progress and Development
167. Political (Un)Culture and Political Parties Are the Decisive Factor in Political (Non-)Socialization in BiH
168. Bosnia and Herzegovina — A Historical Transit Through Various Challenges: Political, Economic, Cultural, Social, and Moral
169. (In)tolerance — The Fundamental Problem in BiH
170. Real Politics Is Only Possible Where Ethics Forms Its Foundation — Honesty Is the Best Policy
171. Dialogue in Dayton BiH Presupposes Equal Participants, Not Subjects
172. Society, Violence, and Dialogue
173. Victims of Stadium Violence — Freedom of the Media and Freedom From Certain Media
174. Sport Against Violence
175. Violence in Sport — A Problem of the Modern Age
176. Education and Upbringing for Dialogue and Tolerance in the Interpretations of Prof. Dr. Đuro Šušnjić
177. Dialogue and Tolerance in the Interpretations of Prof. Dr. Đuro Šušnjić
178. The Art of Conducting Dialogue Among Political Elites in BiH
179. Participation in the VI International Scientific Conference, CONFSEC, 2022, Sofia, Bulgaria: Scientific Technical Union of Mechanical Engineering — Industry 4.0
180. Political Culture in Bosnia and Herzegovina — The Spirit of the Provincial Town Stifles the Nascent Pluralism of Ideas
181. The State — Authority Limited by Law and Laws
182. Masses and Elites in Bosnia and Herzegovina: How and Where to Go from Here
183. Hate Speech in Bosnia and Herzegovina
184. Corruption Is Promoted by Authoritarian Political Power
185. Divisions in BiH and National Bunkers
186. Opportunism and Immoral Conduct in Politics — A Danger to BiH
187. Where Is the Academic Community Headed — Is It Being Destroyed?
188. Patriots and Traitors — Dangerous Communication in BiH
189. Political Corruption in BiH — Disruption of Moral Values
190. Media, Society, and Public Relations — Political Socialization Is Missing in BiH
191. Sociology — The Foundational Social Science at Universities and Faculties
192. The High Representative — The Power and Powerlessness of Law in BiH
193. Ponerology — Our Lighthouse — How to Discover the Nature of Evil, Its Causes, Its Development, and How to Fight It
194. Where Is Dayton BiH Headed
195. Hate Speech — The Problem of the Balkan Crossroads
196. Where Are Democracy, Politics, and Power Headed?
197. Democracy — The Identity of the Governing and the Governed
198. Where Are Democracy and Power Headed
199. (Non)Engagement as an Ethical Question
200. Where Is Bosnia and Herzegovina Headed
201. The Development of the Third Mission of the University in Republika Srpska and Bosnia and Herzegovina

- 202. Democracy and Ethnic Relations in Bosnia and Herzegovina
- 203. Education Must Regain Its Integrity
- 204. Where Are Divisions and Hate Speech Leading Us: Political (National), Cultural (Religious) Divisions and Hate Speech Are Recognizable Features of (Un)Democracy in Republika Srpska and Bosnia and Herzegovina
- 205. Security Culture in the Function of Developing Political Culture
- 206. In the Function of Protection, Security, and Defense of Republika Srpska (×2)
- 207. We Must Protect, Secure, and Defend Republika Srpska: The Marking of the 20th Anniversary of Defendology — The Science of Security Studies, Protection, Security, and Defense Has Begun